

Gendering the Modern World: A conference in honour of Pat Thane

Friday 10 September 2010

University of Greenwich, Maritime Campus, Greenwich, London

Professor Pat Thane is retiring at the end of the academic year 2009-2010 from her post as Leverhulme Professor of Contemporary History at the Institute of Historical Research.

To celebrate her contribution to the discipline of history and to individual historians, a one-day research conference will be held. Pat's former PhD students will give papers on the overall topic of "Gendering the Modern World" in a series of themed sessions, on politics, sexuality, the life-cycle, education, and the professions. Speakers include Kate Bradley, Vanessa Chambers, Hera Cook, Helen Glew, Mary Clare Martin, Helen McCarthy, John Stewart, Cornelia Osborne and Selina Todd.

There will be poster presentations by her current students.

This will be followed this with evening entertainments, including drinks and a meal in Greenwich.

To register for this event, email genderthane@googlemail.com

The conference is free, but we would like to invite donations to enable postgraduates to attend the annual conference of the Social History Society. Please send cheques made out to "Social History Society" (marked Pat Thane Fund on the back), to Linda Persson at the University of Lancaster, Bailrigg, Lancaster, LA1 4YG
